Shariah Advisory Committee Approval

The Shariah Advisory Committee, having reviewed the respective constitutive documents of the Shariah Compliant Islamic Mutual Funds, Investment Plans & Voluntary Pension Schemes as set out above hereby rule that they are in compliance with the principles of Shariah.

These Funds and Plans are structured on the basis of Shirkah (partnership) among the unit holders, whereas, the AMC is the agent for investment working under Wakatul Istishmaar contract (Agency for investment). The AMC will charge a fee for services rendered by them in respect of managing funds. The AMC invest funds received from unit holders in different Shariah Compliant avenues on behalf of unit holders that include, but are not restricted to Shariah Compliant Equities, Shariah Compliant Bank Deposits and Shariah Compliant Sukuk Markets. The Shariah Advisory Committee ensures that all investments under these funds/plans are free from any Shariah repugnant element such as Riba, Gharar and Qimar etc. The complete rights & ownerships of the parties are mentioned in the respective Constitutive Documents. The Funds and Plans will be governed by the Shariah principles as elaborated in AAOIFI Sharia Standards such as standards for Wakalatul Istishmaar, Sukuks, shares and Shariah Compliant Bank Accounts.

The Shariah Advisory Committee is mainly responsible for approving the investment venues and supervising the funds from Shariah compliance perspective only. In addition to the above, the Shariah Advisory Committee will issue an Annual Review Report (as part of the Annual Accounts) to pronounce their opinion about the Shariah status of the Funds & Plans.
